Memorandum of Agreement between
Alice Lee Centre for Nursing Studies
Yong Loo Lin School of Medicine
National University of Singapore, Singapore and
Faculty of Nursing
Prince of Songkla University, Thailand

The Alice Lee Centre for Nursing Studies (ALCNS), National University of Singapore and the Faculty of Nursing, Prince of Songkla University, with the objective of promoting cooperation in the fields of nursing education and academic research, agree to conclude the agreement on academic and educational exchange. The areas of cooperation will include, subject to mutual consent, any programme or activity desirable and feasible to further scientific and academic interaction between the two institutions, to complement their respective areas of expertise. Such interactions may include:

1. Exchanges of faculty
2. Exchanges of students and trainees
3. Joint research projects and publications
4. Exchanges of publications, materials, and information
5. Joint conferences and workshops
6. Special short-term programmes and visits

This Memorandum of Agreement (MOA) is a non-binding expression of the current intentions of the parties. The parties will enter into specific written agreements hereunder to clarify and define the nature and extent and terms of operation for the collaborations and cooperation between them, including academic terms, intellectual property ownership, and funding issues. These agreements will require the approval of appropriate officers of each party. For agreed upon activities, both institutions will make available their facilities and staffs as further defined in such agreements.

This understanding will last for five years and will be self-renewing unless terminated by one of the parties at any time by written notice, however, no termination should adversely interrupt or impair a programme or course of study commenced prior to such termination. It will take effect on date of signing.
